

PLEASANT PROSPECT

The Wheat Crop Will be Moved.

PLENTY MONEY IN SIGHT

Harriman System Gives Assurance That 1000 Cars Will Move Our Wheat.

MEANS MUCH TO OUR BANKERS

Money Advanced to Exporters by Northwest Bankers. With Warehouse Receipts as Collateral Will be Payable When Wheat is Shipped to Tidewater.

PORTLAND, Nov. 22.—Assurances were given to grain exporters by the Harriman system today that 1000 cars have been devoted to transporting the wheat of Oregon, Washington and Idaho to tidewater from now until the entire crop has been moved. This is the solution of the problem which local bankers and wheat dealers have been striving to solve for weeks past for with movement of crops it is expected millions of dollars in gold will be sent to Portland and the Pacific Northwest. There has been for many weeks past something like $30,000,000 tied up in wheat. That is banks have advanced money to exporters who have bought wheat and paid for it in money, giving the banks warehouse receipts, bills of lading, etc., as collateral security. As soon as the wheat is delivered to tidewater, shipped, bills of lading can be exchanged for gold in London, New York and San Francisco. This is expected to have an almost immediate effect on the money famine so far as the Pacific Northwest is concerned and it is believed by the first of the year at the outside, normal conditions will be obtained.

REFUSED SCRIP.

Pays $25 Loan With $1000 Bill and Demand Cash Change—Gets It.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Milwaukee, Wis., says: Troubles of wealth weighed heavily on the hands of Peter Calahan of Chicago yesterday because he did not want Milwaukee bank certificates. Mr. Calahan came to visit one of the Milwaukee banking institutions where his personal note for $25 was due. "Take the change out of that," commanded Mr. Calahan, handing out a $1000 bill. He refused scrip. Finally Mr. Calahan visited an attorney, who effected an agreement whereby he was paid in cash. The cash was counted out. It consisted of 974 silver dollars and some small change weighing 60 pounds.

COMING TO AMERICA.

Two Commissioners From Philippines Will Leave Manila November 25.

MANILA, Nov. 22.—Pablo Ocampo and Benito Legarda, who have been chosen as commissioners from the Philippines to Washington, expect to leave for America by the liner Manchuria on November 28. Legarda was a member of the Aguinaldo congress under compulsion. He was an American sympathizer during the revolution and a member of the Philippine Commission since the civil government was created. He has great wealth and is well educated. He has visited the United States several times.

Ocampo was identified with the revolution in 1899. He was secretary of the Aguinaldo congress and was sent in exile to Guam. After the surrender of the revolutionists he took the oath under the general amnesty act and since then has lived quietly, practicing law. He was an independent candidate before the assembly from Manila and defeated Legarda who was the choice of the Philippine commission, Ocampo being that of the assembly. Both houses then voted separately after entering into an agreement that each would ratify the other's choice.

It is understood here that Gregorio Aranaeta, the present attorney-general will succeed Legarda as a member of the Philippine commission.

UP AGAINST IT.

New Jersey Will be Without a Chancellor Unless Loop Hole be Found.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—New Jersey will be without a chancellor for a week next January unless some loophole can be found out of a peculiar legal trap the state has made for itself.

The term of the present chancellor, Wm. J. Magie, will expire on January 14. On that day the last week of Governor Stokes' term will begin, during which period, the constitution of the state provides "no appointment to office shall be made by the governor." The only way to overcome the legal objection is for the chancellor to resign before January 14 and make it possible for Governor Stokes to appoint a new chancellor.

EARTHQUAKE REPORTED.

HAMBURG, Nov. 22.—The seismograph here recorded an earthquake at 9:15 this morning 5000 miles distant.

OUT CASTLE GARDEN

Great Exodus of Foreign Laborers from America.

FEW WOMEN AMONG NUMBER

Owing to Shutting Down of Industries Thousands of Foreigners Are Leaving for Their Native Countries—3300 to Leave Homeward on One Steamer.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—In one of his speeches years ago, Benjamin Harrison said that the gates of Castle Garden always opened inward, never outward. Times have changed, however, for now the outgo of foreign laborers back to Europe, owing to the shutting down of industries since the financial stringency has reached such proportions that the steamship companies are hard pressed to furnish accommodation for them. Hundreds of the foreigners have been obliged to wait until next week because berths could not be found for them. This week all the big trans-Atlantic lines raised the steerage rate from $21 to $32, but still the demand for tickets has increased. A representative of the steamer department of the Hamburg-American line said that from New York alone the number of foreigners departing weekly was 25,000 and that $5,000,000 was being taken away weekly by those returning emigrants either in cash or in drafts on foreign countries.

Steamers have just sailed or are soon to sail, bearing from 700 to 3200 steerage passengers each. It is the President Grant which will sail for Hamburg next Wednesday which will have the 3200 emigrants. They will be largely Russians, Poles and Hungarians.

The Pennsylvania, Erie, Lehigh, Baltimore and Ohio and Jersey Central roads are using special trains to bring the home goers to this port. The exodus seems to be greatest from the Pittsburgh district. The most congestion is at Hoboken, where trains land carloads of emigrants every few hours who are booked for passage by the two great German liners. Scores of the foreigners have been sleeping in one of Hoboken's parks despite the chilly air. A noticeable thing is that women are comparatively few among all these foreigners, the presumption being that many of them are single men who came to seek their fortunes in America and that the rest are married men who left their wives in Europe.

ARGUMENT ADVANCES

Steve Adams Case Nears Close.

WILL GO TO JURY TODAY

Seven Hours Are Allowed Each Side for Argument to the Jury.

VERDICT EXPECTED BY SUNDAY

Robert McFarland Opened the Argument for the State and Was Followed by C. E. Heitman and Edwin McBeen for Defense—Held Night Session.

RATHDRUM, Idaho, Nov. 22.—The argument of attorneys in the Steve Adams case opened this morning and the case will be submitted to the jury tomorrow evening.

The court convened at 9 o'clock this morning and in less than an hour the defense had completed its rebuttal. But three witnesses were called, William Strother, Adams and Warden Whitney. The defense made an effort to have copies of two letters introduced by the state yesterday afternoon and alleged to have been written by Adams to relatives while confined in the penitentiary struck out on the ground that the state had made no effort to get the originals. The motion was denied.

A consultation of attorneys was then held. After the consultation it was announced that an agreement had been reached by the terms of which the case would surely go to the jury tomorrow evening. It was arranged that each side should be allowed seven hours. Robert McFarland, who opened for the state, spoke two hours this morning. He was followed by C. E. Heitman and Edwin McBeen, for the defense, each to speak two hours. Darrow will follow, speaking three hours. Knight and Hawley will close for the state. The latter will speak three hours.

Attorney McFarland reviewed the case from the state's point of view, dwelling at considerable length on the corpus delicti proposition, upon which the defense at the former trial laid particular stress. It is expected that Heitman will devote most of his time to the political aspects of the case. He was for years the Republican leader in Kootenai county but has recently been deposed.

At 4:30 court adjourned until tonight when Counsel Knight of the prosecution took up the argument for the state. The court begins at 9 tomorrow when Darrow and Hawley will be given three more hours apiece for argument for defense and state respectively after which the instructions will be read and the case taken over by the jury. Both sides look for a verdict before Sunday.

NEIL-MORAN FIGHT.

Stopped in Sixteenth Round and Decision Given to Moran—Neill Outclassed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—Owen Moran, England's premier featherweight was given a decision over Frankie Neill of this city near the close of the 16th round after a remarkably fast battle. Neill, technically speaking, was not knocked out but it was only the merciful action of the chief of police which saved him from being sent to the land of nod. There was not a moment's slow work during the entire contest. Both lads fought with remarkable vim and stamina. Early in the fight Moran showed himself to be a superior boxer. He is a clever two-handed fighter, his most effective work in tonight's contest being an almost continuous play upon the Californian's head. Neill showed a remarkable ability to reach the Briton's stomach and several times during the contest had his opponent greatly worried. Moran scored first blood and was credited with the only genuine knock-down of the fight. Neill had the lead in but four rounds of the 16, Moran having a decided advantage in most of the others.

Moran's play for Neill's head began to tell with decided effect in the tenth round and from that on it was only a question of time.

MAURITANIA ARRIVES.

She Brings $12,500,000 Gold For Money Markets—Will be a Winner.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Poking her nose through the dense curtain of fog that hid the coast her topmasts lost from deck view, in enveloping shroud, the biggest and most luxurious ship ever launched on any sea finished in safety her bridal voyage when at 11:05 a. m. today the steamer Mauritania came to anchor off Sandy Hook light-ship, five days, five hours and ten minutes from Queenstown, bearing the fortune of $12,500,000 in gold for the money markets of the west. She fought her way through 3000 miles of storm-swept ocean, battling every mile to meet and defeat the world's trans-Atlantic speed record of four days 18 hours and 40 minutes, held by the Lusitania.

FOOTBALL CLOSES.

Football in East Closes Today With Battle—Yale vs. Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 22.—The football season in the East will culminate tomorrow with a game between Harvard and Yale. Nearly 40,000 people will witness the contest. The betting odds on the result are prohibitive in favor of Yale.

John D.—This is the best way yet for me to pay that fine.

INSANITY EVIDENCE

Claim Mrs. Bradley Was Insane.

EXPERTS ARE PRESENT

Defendant's Neighbors Testify Her Reputation in Former Home Was Good.

SALT LAKE WITNESSES DEPART

Expert Testimony Will Not be Begun Until Monday—Claim Will be Made That Mrs. Bradley Was Mentally Irresponsible When Crime Was Committed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The defense in the trial of Mrs. Annie M. Bradley, charged with the murder of Former United States Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah, in this city last December, today endeavored to strengthen its plea of insanity by introducing expert testimony on this subject.

Practically the entire day was consumed by the defense in presenting testimony by witnesses from Mrs. Bradley's former home, Salt Lake City, to show there was a taint of insanity in her family, especially on her mother's side. After these witnesses had given this evidence and declared that Mrs. Bradley's general reputation in Salt Lake was good, they were finally excused and started homeward. The trial was adjourned at 3 o'clock to Monday.

Several alienists of note were present, expecting to take the stand during the day. Among these are Dr. Britain Evans, medical director of the New Jersey State Hospital for the Insane, and Dr. Charles G. Hill, of Baltimore. In addition, Dr. Alfred M. Barton, professor of gynecology in Georgetown University, will testify.

Although it is not claimed that at the present time Mrs. Bradley is insane, the experts will be put on the stand to show that for some time previously and on the date of the tragedy Mrs. Bradley was mentally irresponsible, caused by the several criminal operations and by many wrongs Brown is alleged to have heaped upon her, envenoming in his change of heart.

All the witnesses for the Bradley defense from Salt Lake City were excused today and allowed to return to their homes.

Albert R. Barnes, assistant general attorney of Utah, who was on the stand yesterday for the defense, continued his testimony.

Judge Orlando W. Powers, counsel for Mrs. Bradley, stated the expert testimony probably would not be begun until Monday. The hypothetical question that would be propounded to the medical men had been completed. It embraces 13,000 words. It was expected that the examination of all other witnesses would be concluded today and that an adjournment would be taken until Monday.

Judge H. P. Henderson, formerly law partner of Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah, testified to several interviews with Mrs. Bradley, in one of which he had warned her to stay away from his office. He also told of an effort by both Mrs. Bradley and Mrs. Brown to get the Senator to sign a statement in order that a divorce might be procured.

Judge Henderson, referring to the relations between Senator Brown and his wife, declared that Brown had said to his wife, in the presence of himself and Mrs. Bradley that Mrs. Brown had been a curse to him, and that he would not resume relations with her.

Judge Henderson also testified Mrs. Bradley said to him she would be blamed for everything and that Brown would escape. She declared the trusted Brown just as the whole people of Utah had done, while giving him the highest office they had.

Mrs. Bradley looked much worn, as if she had had a sleepless night. She carried a large cream-white chrysanthemum, which had been presented to her. She brightened up when Mr. Barnes took the stand, and followed him closely, seeming to be much affected when he related interviews with her concerning Brown.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Democratic National Committee Will Meet in Washington, December 12.

FRENCH LICK, Nov. 22.—At a conference of the members of the Democratic National Committee here today it was decided to hold a meeting of the committee at Washington, December 12, for the purpose of selecting the time and the place for holding the national convention next year. Chicago, St. Louis and Denver are applicants for this honor of entertaining the next National Convention. When asked if he would be a candidate for reelection as chairman of the national committee, Taggart's only reply was a laugh. Taggart tonight gave a banquet in honor of the visiting members of the National Committee.

NOISY MEETING.

Herbert Gladstone Prevented From Addressing Meeting by Female Suffragists

LEEDS Eng., Nov. 22.—The Woman suffragists today virtually compelled Herbert Gladstone, secretary of state for home affairs, to abandon his attempt to address a meeting here. Interruptions from suffragists became so persistent that Gladstone declared he would no longer struggle against such tactics and brought his speech to a sudden close. One of the suffragists thereupon tried to take possession of the meeting. While she was speaking a fight broke out between the men and women in the audience.

DANGEROUS PRANK

Six Girls Were Locked in Large Vault.

DONE BY MISCHIEVOUS BOY

Office Boy Closes Door While Girls Are in Vault and They Are Nearly Suffocated Before Being Rescued—The Boy Was Discharged.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Six young women stenographers employed by the American Steel & Wire Company, had a terrifying experience yesterday as the result of a prank played on them by an office boy. There are 30 young women employed in the order department transcribing invoices on the typewriter. During the noon hour they organized choruses and played parlor games until the return of their superior. Yesterday six of the young women conceived a variation of the program and adjourned to a cavernous filing vault to sing. They left the door partly closed.

Just when the chorus was rolling forth in reverberating volume little Willie Osterfelt, the office boy, slipped up to the vault, hanged the door shut, and gave the combination knob a whirl. The song of the imprisoned sextette died away in a shriek while six pairs of feminine hands beat on the iron door. The other young women stenographers sprang to the rescue and Willie hastily decamped. The vault was air tight and none of the girls knew the combination in fact, it was known only to A. P. Pratt, head of the filing department and he was at lunch. One cool headed young woman, however, found the janitor and rushed him to the spot with pick axe and crow bar. A hole was soon made in the vault wall, through which the prisoners received air. They said they had nearly suffocated.

Mr. Pratt returned later and released the six girls. One was suffering from a nervous shock as a result of the experience and was sent home in a carriage. Willie was discharged.
